Midwest Bible Camp General Policies

The MWBC Board of Directors has formulated the following policies, which are general in nature. Camp directors have full responsibility for interpretation and administration of these policies. Please contact one of the Weekend Getaway directors for details or questions. Policy interpretations specific to Weekend Getaway ("WG") are included below in bold red text.

- All camp activities will be under the supervision of one or more of the camp staff. Some activities at "WG" may be under the supervision of adult campers.
- All campers shall participate in all Bible classes unless excused by the Camp Director.
- All physical health will be under the supervision of the Camp Nurse. Medication in original containers must be submitted to the Nurse at arrival with instructions for use and will be administered by the Nurse. Any infectious condition (such as Pink Eye, Ring Worm, Head Lice, etc.) shall be under effective treatment prior to coming to camp.
- Personal hygiene, cleanliness and neatness are required of everyone at camp.
- All swimming must be supervised by the Certified Camp Lifeguard.
- The following are strictly not allowed at camp:
 - Tobacco, alcoholic beverages, illegal substances (drugs)
 - Firearms, knives or other weapons
 - Fireworks, matches, cigarette lighters
 - Music and/or video players and similar electronic devices, magazines or comics
- No hazing or physical / verbal abuse is allowed.
- Campers may not leave their cabins after lights out without permission.
- Damage and defacing of the camp facilities, equipment, or property will not be tolerated.
- Vehicles driven to camp by campers under age 19 shall be registered and the keys left with the camp director.
- Phones and other communication devices should be left with the camp director if brought. We will not require you to turn in your cell phones for "WG", but if you want to turn them in so you can't be contacted, we'll be happy to take them. Please just be sure the ringer is off at times where we won't want to be disturbed.

Dress Code

All clothing brought by campers must be modest and suitable for camp wear. It is up to the Camp Director and the staff to determine if a camper is dressed properly. If dress is not appropriate, the camper will be expected to change their clothes and put on something more acceptable.

- Short Shorts are not acceptable: "knee length" is a good standard.
- Tight fitting clothing (including body suits and biking shorts) is not acceptable unless covered by looser fitting clothes.
- Transparent or revealing clothing (including tank tops, muscle shirts, midriffs and halter tops) is not acceptable (girls or boys).
- Appropriate clothing will be worn to and from the swimming area.
